

David Hall

(414)-949-1285; dhall7@uoregon.edu

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/davidhallphd/>

Education:

PhD Economics; Fall 2022 – Summer 2027 (Expected)

University of Oregon

M.S. Quantitative Economics; GPA: 3.95; 05/2021–05/2022

California Lutheran University

Thesis: Forecast of Employment Inflows and Outflows

B.A. Economics, Mathematics; GPA: 3.876; 08/2017-05/2021

California Lutheran University

Theses: The Effect of Different-Race Policing on Excessive Use-of-Force Cases (Economics), An Optimization of Political Lying (Mathematics)

Appointments:

Research Assistant, University of Oregon

PI: Benjamin Hansen, PhD, Funded by Arnold Ventures

Dates: Summer 2025 – current

Behavioral Science Training: Drug Abuse (NIH T32)

New York University; Summer 2023 – Summer 2025

Overton Fellowship in Economics

California Lutheran University; Summer 2020

Project: Effect of Police Agency Unionization on Use of Force Cases

Working Papers:

- Hall, David, Hansen, Ben, and Matsuzawa, Kyutaro. “Overdose Mortality Rate and Contributing Mechanisms: A Study of Oregon’s Measure 110.”
- Hall, David “Testing Substance Use Disorder Treatment’s Treatment Effects”

Research in Progress:

- Measure 110 Treatment Funding Impact

Conference Presentations:

- ASHEcon (June 2024)
- World Social Science Association (April 2025)

Statistical Software:

- R (Advanced)
- STATA (Intermediate)
- Eviews (Intermediate)

- MySQL (Intermediate)
- PowerBI (Intermediate)
- Python (Beginner)
- Julia (Beginner)

Awards and honors:

- University of Oregon First-Year Econometrics Award (2023)
- IIF Certificate of Forecasting (2021)
- University Honors Program with Distinction (2021)
- Economics Departmental Distinction (2020)
- Overton Summer Research Fellow (2020)
- Presidential Scholar (2017-2021)
- Dean's List: (2017-2021)

Teaching:

- University of Oregon (2023-2024)
 - TA, EC 101
 - TA, EC 201
 - TA, EC 202

Professional Membership:

- American Economic Association
- American Society for Health Economics